Philadelphia, Jan. 20th., 1898

Mr. Henry Chapman,

#1542 Pine St., Philadelphia.

Dear Sir:

As you have not been at our Refinery for several days, we presume that you have finished experimenting with your machine, in which case we would suggest that you have some boxes up, as at present it is laying about loose and liable to be damaged in some way. Of course we cannot assume any responsibility in the premises.

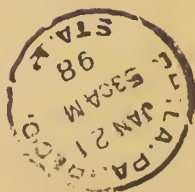

Yours truly,

THE W. J. McCAHAN SUGAR REFINING CO.

Jas. M. McCahan

MANAGER.
